A Year-Long Journey of Self-Discovery, Cultural Immersion, and the Pursuit of the Good Life in the Enchanting Region of Galicia, Spain

In this beautifully written and evocative memoir, author Mary Jane Smith takes readers on a year-long journey to the enchanting region of Galicia, Spain, where she immerses herself in the local culture, explores the stunning landscape, and discovers the true meaning of La Vida Dulce.

From the vibrant city of Santiago de Compostela to the rugged coastline of the Rías Baixas, to the lush vineyards of the Ribeira Sacra, Galicia is a land of breathtaking beauty and rich cultural traditions. Mary Jane experiences it all, from attending lively festivals to sampling the local cuisine, from hiking the Camino de Santiago to learning to speak Galician.

Through her vivid descriptions and insightful observations, Mary Jane brings Galicia to life, sharing her encounters with the warm and welcoming people, her adventures and misadventures, and the profound lessons she learns about herself and the world around her.

A Year to Write Home About is not just a travelogue, but a personal story of growth, transformation, and the search for meaning in life. It is a book that will inspire readers to embrace new experiences, seek out hidden gems, and live life to the fullest.
