

Bobby Jones: America and the Story of Golf

Bobby Jones was one of the greatest golfers of all time. He won the Grand Slam in 1930, becoming the only person to ever win all four major championships in the same year. Jones was also a gifted amateur golfer, winning the U.S. Amateur Championship five times and the British Amateur Championship once. He retired from competitive golf in 1930 at the age of 28, but continued to be involved in the game as a course designer and golf administrator.
