Step back in time and embrace the timeless allure of vintage redwork potholders with our enchanting crochet pattern, Pb070. These exquisite accessories are a delightful blend of nostalgia and functionality, adding a touch of warmth and charm to any kitchen.

A Legacy of Tradition

Redwork embroidery, a technique characterized by intricate patterns stitched in vibrant red thread on white or cream fabric, has a rich history dating back centuries. This charming art form originated in Europe and was brought to the Americas by early settlers. Redwork potholders, in particular, have become beloved household items, adorning kitchens and protecting hands from the heat for generations.
