Dig Dig Digging Abc by Margaret Mayo is a wonderful book for young children. It is full of bright and colorful illustrations and teaches children about the alphabet in a fun and engaging way. The book follows a group of children as they dig in the dirt and discover different objects that start with each letter of the alphabet.

The illustrations in Dig Dig Digging Abc are simply stunning. They are bright and colorful and full of life. The children in the book are adorable and expressive, and the animals are just as cute. The illustrations will definitely capture the attention of young children and keep them engaged throughout the book.

The text in Dig Dig Digging Abc is simple and easy to read. The sentences are short and sweet, and the vocabulary is age-appropriate. This makes the book perfect for young children who are just starting to learn to read. The book also includes a fun activity at the end where children can practice their letter recognition skills.

Dig Dig Digging Abc is a great book for young children. It is full of bright and colorful illustrations, teaches children about the alphabet in a fun and engaging way, and is perfect for young children who are just starting to learn to read. I highly recommend this book.
