Dive into the Heart of Tallinn: Estonia's Enchanting Capital

Begin your Baltic adventure in Estonia's historic capital, Tallinn. Step back in time as you wander through the cobblestone streets of the Old Town, a UNESCO World Heritage Site. Marvel at the towering spires of the Toompea Castle and the medieval grandeur of the Town Hall Square.

Beyond the Old Town, Tallinn offers a vibrant tapestry of modern attractions. Visit the KGB Museum to delve into Estonia's past, or experience the cutting-edge digital culture at the Estonian Museum of Contemporary Art. Don't miss the chance to sample the flavors of Estonian cuisine, from hearty soups and grilled meats to delicate pastries.

Explore the Art Nouveau Enclaves of Riga: Latvia's Cultural Hub

Next on your journey, head to Riga, Latvia's charming capital. Renowned for its Art Nouveau architecture, Riga boasts a captivating cityscape adorned with elaborate facades and colorful decorations. Stroll along Alberta Street, admire the opulent National Opera House, and visit the Art Nouveau Museum to delve into the history of this architectural style.

In Riga, culture thrives alongside history. Visit the Occupation Museum to learn about Latvia's past under Soviet rule, explore the Central Market for a vibrant shopping experience, and relax in the picturesque Bastejkalns Park. Savor traditional Latvian dishes like pelmeni (dumplings) and piragi (savory pastries) accompanied by a local beer.

Uncover the Baroque Gems of Vilnius: Lithuania's Historic Heart

Conclude your Baltic exploration in Vilnius, Lithuania's historic capital. The city's Baroque Old Town is a breathtaking sight, with its pastel-colored buildings, narrow streets, and stunning churches. Climb to the top of Gediminas Castle for panoramic city views, visit the poignant Museum of Genocide Victims to learn about Lithuania's past, and wander through the vibrant Užupis Republic, a self-declared artistic district.

Vilnius is not only a city of history but also of flavors. Indulge in hearty Lithuanian cuisine, including cepelinai (potato dumplings) and šaltibarsščiai (cold beetroot soup). Explore the sprawling Kalvarijų Market for local produce and handicrafts.

Beyond the Cities: Embracing the Natural Splendors

While the Baltic cities are brimming with cultural delights, the surrounding countryside beckons nature enthusiasts. Estonia's Lahemaa National Park offers scenic hiking trails, pristine lakes, and secluded beaches. In Latvia, venture into Gauja National Park to experience dramatic rock formations, ancient forests, and meandering rivers. Lithuania's Curonian Spit National Park, a UNESCO World Heritage Site, is a haven for birdwatchers and nature lovers, with its towering dunes and diverse landscapes.
