Prepare to embark on a spine-tingling journey into the ghostly realms of America's shorelines with "Haunted Beaches," a captivating book by renowned paranormal investigator Sherri Granato. This enthralling volume unveils the chilling tales of restless spirits, unexplained phenomena, and the haunting memories that linger along the sandy shores.

Uncover the Supernatural Secrets of America's Beaches

From the windswept dunes of Cape Cod to the vibrant shores of California, "Haunted Beaches" takes you on a haunting expedition across the coastal regions of the United States. Granato meticulously investigates a multitude of beachside haunts, uncovering chilling stories that will send shivers down your spine:

- Witness the ghostly apparitions and unexplained noises that torment the historic Battery Point Lighthouse in Delaware.
- Discover the legend of the "Lady in Black" who roams the shores of Lake Michigan, seeking vengeance for a tragic past.
- Unravel the mystery of the phantom ship that appears off the coast of Malibu, California, a haunting relic of maritime folklore.

Meet the Intriguing Personalities behind the Hauntings

Beyond the chilling tales of the supernatural, Granato introduces you to the fascinating array of characters who have witnessed these eerie phenomena. From haunted homeowners to beachside historians, each individual shares their captivating account, adding depth and credibility to the ghostly narratives.

Join Granato as she interviews the proprietors of the famed "Ghost House" in Virginia Beach, Virginia, who have documented decades of unexplained activity within their walls. Or meet the lighthouse keeper on the remote island of Fort Point, Texas, who encountered a ghostly apparition that changed his life forever.

Explore the Historical Roots of the Hauntings

"Haunted Beaches" delves into the rich history that intertwines with the supernatural occurrences along the coast. Granato meticulously traces the origins of the hauntings, uncovering the tragic events, shipwrecks, and unsolved mysteries that have left an indelible mark on these sandy shores.

Dive into the captivating tale of the SS Morro Castle, a luxury liner that tragically caught fire off the coast of New Jersey, resulting in a haunting legacy that lingers to this day. Or explore the myth-shrouded waters of Santa Catalina Island, where legends of pirate treasure and ghostly encounters have captivated the imagination for centuries.
