

No Horizon Is So Far: The Extraordinary Journey of Dawn Langley Simmons

Embark on an Unforgettable Odyssey of Resilience, Adventure, and Triumph

In the annals of human endeavor, there are few tales as captivating and inspiring as that of Dawn Langley Simmons. In her extraordinary memoir, No Horizon Is So Far, she recounts her remarkable journey as the first woman to circumnavigate the globe solo, non-stop, and via the treacherous Southern Ocean.

Dawn's odyssey began in 1988 when she set sail from England in her 32-foot yacht. For more than 260 days, she faced relentless storms, towering waves, and the solitude of the vast expanse. Along the way, she encountered whales, seals, and other marine life, each encounter a reminder of the fragility and beauty of our planet.
