Bilbao, the vibrant capital of Bizkaia, has transformed itself into a cultural powerhouse. Marvel at the iconic Guggenheim Museum, a masterpiece of modern architecture that houses a world-renowned art collection. Stroll through the cobblestone streets of the Old Quarter (Casco Viejo), a labyrinthine maze brimming with traditional architecture and lively taverns.

For a taste of industrial heritage, visit the Maritime Museum, chronicling Bilbao's maritime past. Embark on a guided tour of the La Ribera Market, an architectural marvel bursting with local cuisine and tantalizing scents.

San Sebastian: A Haven of Culinary Delights and Coastal Splendor

San Sebastian, nestled along the breathtaking Bay of Biscay, is a culinary paradise and surfer's haven. Indulge in the city's Michelin-starred restaurants, renowned for their innovative Basque cuisine. Meander through the historic Parte Vieja (Old Town), where pintxos bars serve delectable bite-sized creations.

Escape to the crescent-shaped La Concha Beach, a pristine expanse of golden sand with crystal-clear waters. Ascend Mount Igueldo for panoramic views of the city and surrounding coastline.

Exploring the Basque Country: A Region of Culture and Tradition

Beyond Bilbao and San Sebastian, the Basque Country offers a rich tapestry of cultural experiences. Visit Gernika, the historic town immortalized by Picasso's famous painting. Explore the Basque Coast, a rugged coastline of towering cliffs and charming fishing villages.

Immerse yourself in Basque traditions at the Azkuna Zentroa in Bilbao, a vibrant cultural center showcasing art, music, and theater. Discover the origins of Basque culture at the San Telmo Museum in San Sebastian.
